EASLEY REAPPOINTS SWINDELL TO NASH COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Sen. Albin A. Swindell, IV (D-Nashville) to the Nash Community College Board of Trustees.

Swindell has been on the board since 1996. Swindell represents the 11th district in the North Carolina Senate, which includes Franklin, Nash and parts of Vance county. He serves on numerous Senate committees and co-chairs the education/higher education committee and the education appropriations committee. Swindell attended Wilson Technical Community College, Sandhills Community College, Louisburg College and N.C. State University.

The duties of the board of trustees are: to elect a president to the institution; to employ other personnel to the community college; to purchase land that is necessary for the operation of the college; to apply the standards for admission and graduation of the students of the institution; to receive and accept donations given to the community college; and to provide all or part of the instructional services for the institution. The board consists of 12 members who serve four-year terms. The governor appoints four members.
